Advanced Studies Application Information

Sixth Formers have an additional educational opportunity in Advanced Studies to pursue their passions in a particular discipline when the area of interest is beyond the standard courses offered by the department. It is expected that students have already pursued the courses offered in the standard curriculum before applying for an Advanced Studies course.

Requirements of an Advanced Studies course:

- The student has demonstrated both interest and ability in the proposed area of study.
- The student must meet with the adviser a minimum of twice per week, with at least one of those meetings occurring in the academic day.
- Students are required to record weekly updates of their progress using Canvas; the adviser will verify the student’s progress each week.
- The adviser must be a faculty member at SPS (teaching fellows may not be advisers for Advanced Studies).
- Students may apply for an Advanced Studies on a term-by-term basis.
- Faculty members may advise only one Advanced Studies per term.

Application Procedure:

- Students interested in applying for Advanced Studies must be highly motivated, independent learners with excellent academic records.
- Students must petition a faculty member to serve as the adviser to their project, recognizing that not all faculty will be able to take on this extra time commitment. The Advanced Studies adviser’s role must be clearly stated in your proposal (see below).
- Students must submit the completed Advanced Studies Request Form and the completed proposal to the Office of Academic Affairs, in the CIT.
- The Academic Department Heads group will review all proposals and determine which are approved.

Advanced Studies proposals include:

- A completed Advanced Studies Request Form with signed approval from the student adviser, the Advanced Studies adviser, and appropriate academic department head.
- A detailed plan that
  - articulates a course of study or a performance goal to be completed as fulfillment of the Advanced Studies requirement over the course of one term, including a weekly outline;
  - explains why the courses offered in the department do not satisfy your continued studies;
  - lists materials and texts that will be used;
  - details the location and times of meetings;
  - explains the role of the adviser;
  - outlines the rubric that your adviser will use to assess your work both throughout and at the end of the term.
